2023 OUTSTANDING INDIVIDUAL AWARD

Library volunteers improve their library and make the community a better place to live. FoKL sincerely thanks all volunteers for their work.

The FoKL Outstanding Individual Award is a great way to recognize those exemplary individuals that have selflessly given their time and talents to their local library and Friends group. The winner will receive a $50 cash award given in their name to their Friends group. Additionally, the winner will be honored during the FoKL Luncheon at the Kansas Library Association Conference.

To be considered, the individual:

- Must be a member of their library's Friends group and the group must be a member of FoKL
- Must not have received an Outstanding Individual Award in the previous three years

Please complete the information below. On a separate page, summarize the individual's accomplishments and contributions to their Friends group and library.
